POLICY
In accordance with The Regional Colleges’ Act, The Saskatchewan Institute of Applied Science and Technology Act, and other Accrediting Colleges, Parkland College is authorized to fix and determine fees for programs, courses, seminars or other types of instruction.

Administrative Fees:
Accrediting Colleges set fees directly related to a student’s enrollment and Parkland College increases the fee by 15% to cover administrative costs.

Application Fees:
Domestic non-refundable application fee is $60.00 for an online application and $90.00 for a paper application. International non-refundable application fee is $140.00 for an online application and $200.00 for a paper application.

Tuition Fees:

Domestic students must pay a non-refundable $350.00 tuition deposit in order to secure a seat in the program with the exception of the NFPA Firefighting program which requires a $1,500 tuition deposit (non-refundable $350).

International students are required to pay non-refundable 50% of total tuition to secure a seat in the program. Remaining tuition Fees are due on or before the program start date.

Late Payment

1) Domestic Students who have not paid tuition on or before the commencement of their program will be levied a late payment fee of $200.00. International Students who have not paid tuition on or before the commencement of their program will be levied a late payment fee of $500.00.

2) Failure to pay tuition and other assessed fees may result in students being excluded from class and will result in the placement of a financial hold on the student account, meaning:
   - The student may be discontinued from the program
   - The student may not apply or register at any Parkland College campus until the past-due account has been paid
   - Textbooks, transcripts, grades, certificates, diplomas or degrees and any other completion documentation will be withheld until full payment is made
• Collection proceedings will be considered on all accounts that remain due after the completion of the course

Third Party Sponsors

Parkland College works with a number of Third Parties who assume responsibility for the payment of tuition for sponsored students. Third Parties are required to make payment on behalf of students on or before the start date of the program. Outstanding payments beyond 30 days will be subject to a late payment fee.

Refund Provisions

Students who notify the College in writing of their withdrawal prior to the commencement of their program, or are discontinued by the College, may be entitled to a refund of tuition only as described below. Refunds are not provided for materials and/or textbooks. Refunds must be processed in the same manner in which they were paid (i.e. credit card to credit card, debit to debit, wire transfer to wire transfer etc.) and need to be requested and processed within the same fiscal year as the program.

1) Accepted and/or conditionally accepted domestic students who withdraw prior to the start date of their program session are entitled to a refund of paid tuition and fees including health & dental fees (less the $350.00 tuition deposit). International students who withdraw prior to the start date of their program session are entitled to a refund of 50% of total tuition and fees including and health & dental fees. Exception: In the case of a study visa refusal, all tuition will be refunded less an administrative fee of $350.00.

2) Domestic students who withdraw within one week following the commencement of the program or prior to the third occurrence of the class will be eligible for a refund of 75 percent of tuition.

3) Domestic students who withdraw following the 75 percent refund period and on or before 50 percent completion of the program/class length will be eligible for a refund of 25 percent of tuition.

4) Domestic and International Students who withdraw after 50 percent completion of the program/class length will not be eligible for a refund.

5) Domestic and International students may transfer full tuition (less a $300 administration fee) within the same academic year if notification of withdrawal is received between 14 days prior and either 14 days after course start date of the program. Program transfer requests are permitted from one credit offering to another credit-offering program. Transfer requests outside of these guidelines are subject to Presidents approval.

6) Domestic and International Students who do not successfully complete a prerequisite course will be refunded the full tuition amount for the course that could not be completed.

7) Domestic and International Students who withdraw from a program practicum prior to start date (i.e. PCP, CCA practicums) are eligible for a full refund of tuition for the practicum portion of that program. Refund calculations stated in this policy are applied based on 2 semesters for practicum-based programs.

8) Domestic and International Students who have eligible transfer credits will be refunded the full tuition amount for that course that transfer credit was applied.

9) Domestic and International Students who are declared academically ineligible after the first semester of a program will be provided with a tuition refund for the remaining portion of the course/program.

10) Domestic and International Students who have been discontinued for academic or behavioural misconduct will not be eligible for a tuition refund.

11) Students wishing to have exceptional circumstances considered for refunds above those stated may appeal the decision in writing to the President.

12) If a course or program is cancelled by Parkland College, full fees will be refunded.
